Regal Experiences with HRH Group of Hotels

Regal Experiences distinguish and define our promise of 'Experience the Original in the Abode of Kings'. At our Grand Heritage Palaces and Royal Retreats, heritage-venues have been developed to successfully conduct meetings, incentives, events, conferences and film-shoots. The exclusive range of heritage-venues, unparalleled and most-sought-after, match the creative needs and hospitality requirements for such experiences, often once-in-a-lifetime experiences! Where else can glorious history become a part of present-day celebrations...Global celebrities, multinational corporations and Indian business houses have conducted their corporate events and personal celebrations at our heritage-venues. Heads of State, film stars, celebrities from the world of glamour and sports have graced these occasions that have made headlines throughout the world.

From glamorous mega-events and glittering wedding banquets to dignified conferences, our 'regal experiences' have been seamlessly organized to suit guests' preferences for cuisine, décor and ambience. Our endeavor to enrich these 'regal experiences' with authentic cuisine, ethnic music and dance, traditional lighting and line-up of vintage cars and horsemen is highly appreciated. It makes the events even more memorable and unique with this unmistakable touch of royal Rajasthan.

Film production houses – from Bollywood to Hollywood – have captured on celluloid the timeless romance of Udaipur and Rajasthan. We work, as a team, with film crews to ensure that shooting schedules are completed on time.

Moreover given the fast-changing and fast-growing hospitality industry, we are geared to match your budgetary requirements with our offer of matchless venues. For global and Indian event management companies, wedding planners and organizers, we have always been attentive to their needs and requirements; collectively, we've worked to ensure that their Regal Experience with HRH Group becomes benchmarked for its spirit of celebration and the roll-out of professional services.

Jagmandir, Udaipur

a palace on an island in Lake Pichola

Jagmandir – a palace on an island in Lake Pichola – has been adorning pages of glossy magazines and lifestyle media from all over the world. Global and Indian celebrities have been attending the Regal Weddings, celebratory dinners, special events and musical soirees organized at heritage-venues of this 17th century pleasure-palace of the Maharanas of Mewar.

Jagmandir's Garden Courtyard is ideal for celebratory events: it can accommodate large groups and can be specially decorated for smaller groups too. With flowers and traditional lights, the Garden Courtyard creates the desired mood and gets the guests to celebrate. Musical soirees and performances have been regularly held here, with the night skies above and the magical ambience of the island-palace.

The Kunwarpada Chowk, with its landscaped garden, is specially developed for wedding ceremonies; the intimacy and privacy for wedding rites and rituals is heightened here, amidst the greenery and the auspicious presence of elephants, ornately carved in marble. Mandaps and special canopies can be creatively constructed, giving family-members and guests the chance to relish every moment of that once-in-a-lifetime event.

The Jagmandir Lawns seem to spread endlessly, beneath the old trees and flowering shrubs, providing an exciting expanse to organize cocktails, special buffets, sit-down dinners and theme-evenings for large groups. The décor, flower arrangements and seating styles can be adapted to suit the evening event and make it even more luxurious for guests. The dais, specially created for performers and DJs, adds yet another dimension to this open-to-sky amphitheatre ringed by trees and painted by the changing colours of the skies over Udaipur's Lake Pichola.

The Zenana Mahal The City Palace Complex, Udaipur

Elegant opulence at its best

The Zenana Mahal, former palace of the royal ladies, is now splendidly transformed to host regal weddings, events and musical soirees. An integral part of the City Palace Complex, Zenana Mahal was built in the early 1600s and has witnessed innumerable royal weddings. Today, you and your wedding guests could be reveling in the historic luxury of Zenana Mahal and enjoying the sumptuous banquets laid out by our chefs to pamper the palate with multi-cuisine fare.

The Zenana Mahal is located at one end of the City Palace complex, with the large spacious court or the Laxmi Chowk in the center. It was restored and developed as an exclusive open-to-sky venue in 1999-2000 to mark the millennium celebrations.

When candles are lit around the flower-decked tables and the central fountains begin, Zenana Mahal creates a festive mood for guests like you. The Chowmukha pavilion, adorning the central courtyard, has a magnificent chandelier that casts its magical glow. Unforgettable evenings can be experienced at Zenana Mahal, an exclusive heritage-venue of the HRH Group.
